

ABOUT OUR INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Shari C. Silverman is currently a Senior Veterinarian with the NJ Department of Agriculture, Division of Animal Health.

Her duties for the state include (but are not limited to): disease prevention, investigation, and response; support of the NJ Standards for the Humane Treatment of Domestic Livestock including cruelty of livestock investigations; and animal emergency preparedness -- planning, mitigation, response, and recovery for all animals, all hazards, all the time.

Dr. Silverman is a graduate of the University Of Pennsylvania School Of Veterinary Medicine. Prior to joining NJDA, she worked in large animal medicine in Central and Northern NJ. Her patients included horses, goats, sheep, donkeys, llamas, alpacas and captive deer. Her interests include horseback riding, biking, kayaking, and flying her Piper Cherokee in the skies above NJ and Pennsylvania.
